

End Citizens United PAC seeks interns for growing, DC-based political organization.

Responsibilities include, but are not limited to:

- Pull daily press clips;
- Develop social media content and track social media analytics;
- Track relevant legislation;
- Research candidates and key races;
- Prepare for and staff call time;
- Research potential donors;
- Maintain donor database;
- Assist with fundraising correspondence and donor follow-up;
- Organize potential events; and
- Conduct support outreach through email and call time.

The ideal candidate will:

- Have excellent research and writing skills;
- Be well organized and hard-working;
- Have an interest in campaign finance reform; and
- Work extremely well with others.

This is an excellent opening for someone seeking to learn in a fast-paced, politically-important organization.

This is a paid internship based in Washington, D.C. Academic credit is also available upon request. The internship starts in August and ends in December.

Please send cover letter, resume, and a writing sample with "Intern" in the subject line to bawadden@endcitizensunited.org.
