Early projections suggest the bill would cut taxes for an average middle-class family. But the typical cut could be relatively modest, compared with the benefits for businesses and high earners. More important, the myriad changes in the code would actually raise taxes on nearly 13 million tax filers who earn $100,000 a year or less, according to preliminary calculations using the open-source economic modeling software TaxBrain.” [New York Times, 11/2/17] Nearly Half Of All Middle-Class Families Would Pay More In Taxes In 2026 Than They Would Under Current Rules If The Proposed House Tax Bill Became Law, And About One-Third Would Pay More In 2018. “Nearly half of all middle-class families would pay more in taxes in 2026 than they would under current rules if the proposed House tax bill became law, and about one-third would pay more in 2018, according to a New York Times analysis, a striking finding for a bill promoted as a middle-class tax cut. President Trump and congressional Republicans have pitched the plan unveiled last week as a tax cut for most Americans. But millions of middle-class families — particularly those with children — would see an immediate tax increase, averaging about $2,000. TAX POLICY CENTER: HALF THE BENEFITS OF THE HOUSE GOP TAX REFORM BILL WOULD GO TO THE TOP 1 PERCENT BY 2027

The Tax Policy Center Found That Half The Benefits Of The House GOP Tax Reform Bill Would Go To The Top 1 Percent By 2027. “The wealthy get a lot of benefits in the bill. The estate tax, which is paid only when property and other assets worth over $5.5 million are passed on to heirs, doubles to about $11 million in 2018 (around $22 million for couples), meaning a lot fewer people have to pay it. And the estate tax goes away entirely in 2024. The mega-wealthy also would get to keep charitable deductions, a popular way that lowers their tax bills, and they no longer would have to pay the alternative minimum tax (AMT), a safeguard against excessive tax dodging that’s been in place since 1969. Some wealthy business owners would be able to take advantage of the lower pass-through rate as well. Overall, the Tax Policy Center found that half the benefits of the bill go to the top 1 percent by 2027.” Washington Post, Wonkblog, [11/16/17]

ABOUT THREE-QUARTERS OF THE BENEFITS FOR THE HOUSE GOP TAX BILL WOULD GO TO BUSINESSES

In Total, About Three-Quarters Of The Benefits For The House GOP Tax Bill Would Go To Businesses. “The price tag for the bill is just over $1.4 trillion, according to JCT, meaning that amount would be added to the debt if spending cuts are not made (or more revenue raised) in the coming years to offset the cost. Economists believe the tax cuts would generate some additional growth, but not nearly enough to cover the costs. In total, about three-quarters of the benefits go to businesses and the remaining quarter goes to individuals.” Washington Post, Wonkblog, [11/16/17]

PAULSEN'S CAMPAIGNS WERE THE BENEFICIARY OF $524K OF SPENDING BY THE U.S. CHAMBER, KOCH INDUSTRIES, AND AMERICAN ACTION NETWORK

Over His Career, Paulsen's Campaigns Were The Beneficiary Of $524K Of Spending By The U.S. Chamber, Koch Industries, And American Action Network:

THE U.S. CHAMBER, KOCH BROTHERS, AND AMERICAN ACTION NETWORK WERE SPECIAL INTERESTS

Trump National Campaign Co-Chairman And Policy Adviser Sam Clovis: United States Chamber Of Commerce Was "Incredibly Powerful Special Interest." "SAM CLOVIS, TRUMP NATIONAL CAMPAIGN CO-CHAIRMAN & POLICY ADVISER: How are you doing, Alisyn? Thanks for having me on [...] CLOVIS: Well, I think the modern populist is one that understands that America is a global player. We are in fact should be the leader in the world on the global stage. In fact, we ought to put American interests first, in doing so, because if we do not put American interests first, what we end up with is what we have. And that's crony capitalism. We have our government picking winners and losers. We have our people that are part of the United States Chamber of Commerce who are incredibly powerful special interest, who fuel and fund reelection campaigns for members of Congress. And this whole notion that they are looking out for the American people is absolutely wrong, because what happens, it raises barriers to entry, it picks winners and losers, allows the trade deals to be written to, in facts, go to the larger corporations." [CNN, New Day, 6/30/16] (VIDEO)

News And Observer: “Out Of State Special Interests (Does The Phrase ‘Koch Brothers’ Ring A Bell?)” Would Spend More Money On Judicial Elections If They Were Changed To Every Two Years. “But at least currently, appeals court judges and Superior Court judges serve eight-year terms, with district court judges serving four years. Making all run every two years would mean more money and likely, much of it would come from out of state special interests (does the phrase ‘Koch brothers’ ring a bell?) who have a dream that Republicans could gain control of every branch of government and that Republican judges might be more inclined to enforce the legislation passed by Republican-run legislatures.” [News & Observer, Editorial Board, 10/26/17]

Star Tribune: Candidate Erik Paulsen Was Aware Of Congressional Leadership Fund But “Candidates Are Banned By Law From Coordinating With Special-Interest Groups” Like CLF. “CLF field offices tailor their pitches to individual districts, Bliss said. But super PACs don't offer unconditional support. The CLF expects its candidates to take tough votes on issues like health care. Paulsen voted to repeal the Affordable Health Care Act. When Iowa Republican Rep. David Young announced he would vote against the replacement House health care bill, the CLF closed its office in his district. The Paulsen campaign is aware of the CLF's efforts, but candidates are banned by law from coordinating with special-interest groups.” [Star Tribune, 7/28/17]

- Congressional Leadership Fund Was Formed To Support A Republican Majority In The House And Was The Sister Super PAC To American Action Network. “Mike Shields, the top aide at the Republican National Committee and a veteran political operative, is leaving the party committee to helm a super PAC dedicated to preserving and expanding the party's House majority. Shields has been appointed president of both the American Action Network, a 501(c)4 organization focused on issue advocacy, and its sister super PAC, the Congressional Leadership Fund.” Washington Post, [1/28/15]

THE U.S. CHAMBER, KOCH NETWORK, AND AMERICAN ACTION NETWORK LED A MULTI-MILLION CAMPAIGN ADVOCATING FOR TAX REFORM

“A COALITION OF SOME OF THE WEALTHIEST FORCES IN CONSERVATIVE POLITICS” LED AN AGGRESSIVE BLITZ TO PUSH GOP LAWMAKERS TO SUPPORT TAX REFORM

Washington Post: “A Coalition Of Some Of The Wealthiest Forces In Conservative Politics Is Kicking Off A Major TV And Ground Campaign This Month To Drive Momentum For A Historic Tax Overhaul.” “A coalition of some of the wealthiest forces in conservative politics is kicking off a major TV and ground campaign this month to drive momentum for a historic tax overhaul. The issue is now the GOP's top legislative priority this fall, following the failure to enact an overhaul of the nation's health-care laws.” Washington Post, [8/11/17]

THE U.S. CHAMBER, KOCH NETWORK, AND AAN SPENT MILLIONS ON ADVERTISING AND LOBBYING EFFORTS ADVOCATING FOR TAX REFORM

THE U.S. CHAMBER SPENT $58 MILLION ON LOBBYING, SPECIFICALLY CITING CORPORATE TAX RATES

The U.S. Chamber Spent $58 Million On Lobbying Through The First Three Quarters Of 2017. “More than 8,500 companies, municipalities, trade associations and other organizations have reported federal lobbying this year – from less than $5,000 by the city of Murfreesboro, Tennessee to $58 million by the U.S. Chamber of Commerce, the perennial top spender.” Center for Responsive Politics, OpenSecrets Blog, [10/23/17]

- MapLight: The Chamber’s Lobbying Came As It Worked To Make Lowering The Corporate Tax Rate A Top Priority. “Since Trump’s inauguration, the chamber has spent almost $40 million lobbying the administration, including the White House and the president’s top advisors. The chamber has made lowering the corporate tax rate a top priority. Last month, the organization announced it would evaluate 2018 congressional candidates on their role in passing tax reform legislation. The Trump administration is reportedly pushing to lower the corporate tax rate from 35 percent to 20 percent or 25 percent.” MapLight, [8/8/17]

The U.S. Chamber Of Commerce Said It Would Work To Oust Members Of Congress Who Got In The Way Of Rewriting And Modernizing The U.S. Tax Code, Including Supporting Primary Challengers To Sitting Republicans. “The U.S. Chamber of Commerce is taking a hard-line stance on tax reform, suggesting it will work to oust members of Congress who get in the way of rewriting and modernizing the U.S. tax code. ‘We’re going to hold them accountable about whether or not they help get tax reform across the finish line or whether or not they stood in the way,’ said Neil Bradley, the Chamber’s chief policy officer, in an interview Sunday on C-SPAN’s ‘Newsmakers.’ Asked whether the Chamber would consider supporting primary challengers to sitting Republicans, Bradley said that ‘all options are on the table.’” Washington Post, [8/28/17]

U.S. Chamber Of Commerce’s Neil Bradley On What Needed To Be In The GOP Tax Bill: “It’s Corporate Rates, It’s The Pass Through Rates For Individuals, And Frankly, It’s Encouraging More Investment.” “Ryssdal: Seems to me what you’re saying is, ‘Listen, we’ve got to keep these corporate cuts. We can negotiate on everything else.’ Bradley: We have to keep the fundamental reforms. We have to move towards a system where we no longer are the outlier in the world who taxes businesses on their worldwide income, that we keep the lower rates for small businesses and big businesses. Those are key critical elements of this reform. Ryssdal: So that’s a that’s a long way to say, ‘Yes, you’re right, corporate rates.’ Bradley: Well, it’s corporate rates, it’s the pass through rates for individuals, and frankly, it’s encouraging more investment.” Northern Public Radio, [11/6/17]

THE KOCH NETWORK SPENT MILLIONS ON A TAX REFORM LOBBYING CAMPAIGN

The Koch Network Said It Spent More Than $20 Million Promoting The GOP Tax Legislation. “The Koch-led groups alone spent more than $20 million promoting the legislation, according to a fact sheet they provided. Republicans on Wednesday said they believe Americans will warm to the legislation over time, as they see changes reflected in their own tax bills.” Wall Street Journal, [12/21/17]

- The Koch Network Said Its Campaign In Support Of Tax Reform Included Knocking On More Than 33,000 Doors, Reaching More Than 16 Million People Via Digital Ads Online, And Running 111 Different Digital Campaigns. “An internal report said the Koch organizations knocked on more than 33,000 doors to tell voters about the tax bill’s potential, reached more than 16 million people via digital ads online and ran 111 different digital campaigns. The cost for Wisconsin alone, where many worried about a defection from Republican Sen. Ron Johnson and the re-election bid next year of Democratic Sen. Tammy Baldwin, was $1.6 million.” TIME, [12/21/17]

AAN PLANNED TO SPEND UP TO $50 MILLION SUPPORTING GOP TAX PACKAGE

American Action Network Said It Would Spend $50 Million Promoting The GOP Tax Plan. “Tens of millions of millions of dollars are likely to be spent by both sides in the tax fight, not to mention the swarm of lobbyists from industry groups expected to descend on Capitol Hill. The conservative American Action Network said it will spend $50 million promoting the plan, while progressive group have vowed to fund major campaigns against it.” NBC News, [11/2/17]

Overall, The American Action Network Spent More Than $24 Million On Its Campaign To Advocate For The GOP Tax Bill, Targeting 64 Different Districts With 25 Unique Ad Campaigns On Television, Digital, Radio And Mobile Billboards. “Republicans had plenty of help on that front. American Action Network spent more than $24 million on its campaign to advocate for the bill, targeting 64 different districts with 25 unique ad campaigns on television, digital, radio and mobile billboards. They served as a clearinghouse of sorts for several key outside conservative groups, lawmakers, key staffers and administration officials with regular meetings at their offices. The largest outside business advocacy groups - including the US Chamber of Commerce and the Business Roundtable -- launched sustained campaigns to keep lawmakers on track.” CNN, [12/20/17]

AAN'S SISTER ORGANIZATION THREATENED TO TAKE AWAY FIELD SUPPORT FROM CANDIDATES THAT DID NOT VOTE TO THEIR LIKING

AAN'S AFFILIATE CLF OPENED A FIELD OFFICE IN PAULSEN'S DISTRICT, AND SAID IT EXPECTED CANDIDATES TO VOTE THEIR WAY OR LOSE THEIR SUPPORT

AAN's Sister Organization, Congressional Leadership Fund, Opened Field Office To Campaign For Paulsen, Before Paulsen Or Any Democrats Opened Field Offices. "The next election is more than 15 months away, but the first campaign field office is already open and buzzing with activity in the politically high-priority Third Congressional District of Minnesota. It wasn't opened by any of the candidates. The Congressional Leadership Fund (CLF), a deep-pocketed national super PAC that has poured millions into Republican races already this year, recently opened a Minnesota outpost at a nondescript strip mall in southwest Bloomington. It's home base for teen volunteers who make calls and knock on doors across the district's suburban neighborhoods, urging voters to send U.S. Rep. Erik Paulsen back for a sixth term next year. Neither Paulsen nor any of the DFLers hoping to unseat him have opened campaign offices in the Third, which encompasses parts of Bloomington, Eden Prairie, Minnetonka, Edina, Brooklyn Park and other southwestern suburbs." TAX REFORM WAS “A CLEAR WINDFALL FOR CORPORATE AMERICA”

New York Times: “The House Republican Tax Bill Is A Clear Windfall For Corporate America And A Roll Of The Dice For [...] Middle-Class Families.” “The House Republican tax bill is a clear windfall for corporate America and a roll of the dice for the middle-class families that President Trump promised would be the centerpiece of his economic agenda. Early projections suggest the bill would cut taxes for an average middle-class family. But the typical cut could be relatively modest, compared with the benefits for businesses and high earners. AAN'S AFFILIATE CLF OPENED A FIELD OFFICE IN PAULSEN'S DISTRICT, AND SAID IT EXPECTED CANDIDATES TO VOTE THEIR WAY OR LOSE THEIR SUPPORT

AAN's Sister Organization, Congressional Leadership Fund, Opened Field Office To Campaign For Paulsen, Before Paulsen Or Any Democrats Opened Field Offices. "The next election is more than 15 months away, but the first campaign field office is already open and buzzing with activity in the politically high-priority Third Congressional District of Minnesota. It wasn't opened by any of the candidates. The Congressional Leadership Fund (CLF), a deep-pocketed national super PAC that has poured millions into Republican races already this year, recently opened a Minnesota outpost at a nondescript strip mall in southwest Bloomington. It's home base for teen volunteers who make calls and knock on doors across the district's suburban neighborhoods, urging voters to send U.S. Rep. Erik Paulsen back for a sixth term next year. Neither Paulsen nor any of the DFLers hoping to unseat him have opened campaign offices in the Third, which encompasses parts of Bloomington, Eden Prairie, Minnetonka, Edina, Brooklyn Park and other southwestern suburbs." - CLF Expected Their Candidates To Vote Their Way On Tough Issues, CLF Closed Its Office In A Representative's District After He Voted Against ACA Repeal. "CLF field offices tailor their pitches to individual districts, Bliss said. But super PACs don't offer unconditional support. The CLF expects its candidates to take tough votes on issues like health care. Paulsen voted to repeal the Affordable Health Care Act. When Iowa Republican Rep. David Young announced he would vote against the re-placement House health care bill, the CLF closed its office in his district." [Star Tribune, 7/28/17]

GFX: PAULSEN ABOARD WITH TAX BILL

PAULSEN COSPONSORED AND VOTED FOR THE TAX CUTS & JOBS ACT

Paulsen Voted For The Tax Cuts And Jobs Act. In November 2017, Paulsen voted for "Passage of the bill that would revise the federal income tax system by: lowering individual and corporate tax rates; consolidating the current seven tax income rates into four rates; eliminating the deduction for state and local income taxes; limiting certain deductions for property taxes and home mortgages; and creating a new system of taxing U.S. corporations with foreign subsidiaries. Specifically, it would eliminate personal exemptions and would nearly double the standard deduction. It would raise the child tax credit through 2022, repeal the alternative minimum tax, repeal the estate tax in 2025 and reduce the gift tax rate in 2025. It would establish a new top tax rate for pass-through business income and would modify tax credits related to energy production." The bill passed 227-205. - Paulsen Was A Original Cosponsor Of The Tax Cuts And Jobs Act. On November 2, 2017, Paulsen cosponsored: "A bill to provide for reconciliation pursuant to title II of the concurrent resolution on the budget for fiscal year 2018." CQ, H.R. 1, Cosponsored [11/2/17]

	Paulsen Voted To Adopt The Conference Report On The Tax Cuts and Jobs Act That Would Overhaul The Federal Income Tax System. In December 2017, Paulsen voted for: “Adoption of the conference report on the bill that would revise the federal income tax system by lowering the corporate tax rate from 35 percent to 21 percent; lowering individual tax rates through 2025; limiting state and local deductions to $10,000 through 2025; decreasing the limit on deductible mortgage debt through 2025; and creating a new system of taxing U.S. corporations with foreign subsidiaries. Specifically, it would repeal personal exemptions and would roughly double the standard deduction through 2025. It would raise the child tax credit to $2,000 through 2025, would repeal the alternative minimum tax for corporations and provide for broader exemptions to the tax for individuals through 2025. It would double individual exemptions to the estate tax and gift tax through 2025, and would establish a new top tax rate for ‘pass-through’ business income through 2025.” The report was adopted by a vote of 227-203.
